

ABOUT LWB

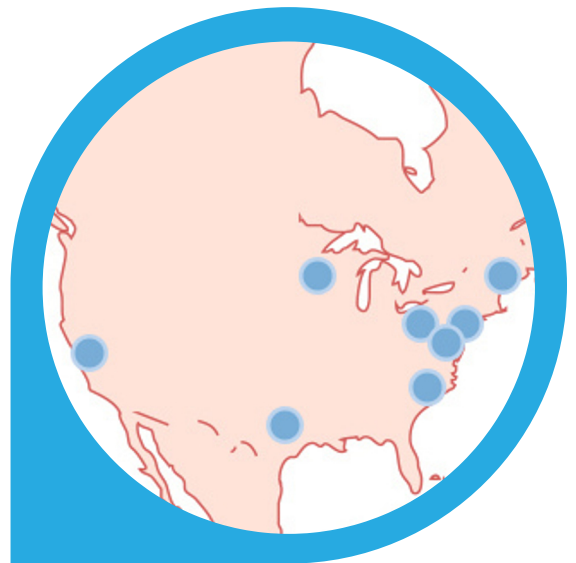

Libraries Without Borders (LWB) is an international non-profit committed to expanding access to information for underserved communities and families. By meeting people where they are and addressing the issues most relevant to their lives, our programs help enable communities to gain the crucial skills they seek.

WHAT IS WALI?

Since 2016, LWB has worked in partnership with public libraries and community-based organizations to design, implement, and evaluate the Wash & Learn Initiative in 8 states. WALI provides technology, books, and programming to laundromats users, maximizing education opportunities for communities.

We currently have 18 sites in Baltimore, Detroit, Oakland, Minnesota, The Bronx, Pennsylvania, San Antonio and Durham.
